

BIARGS

British & Irish Association of
Robotic Gynaecological Surgeons

BIARGS Educational Meeting
26TH June 2023
RCOG, 10-18 Union Street, London, SE1 1GH UK
Programme

0800-0840	Registration		Ground floor main reception, front entrance RCOG, 10-18 Union St. London	Reception
0840-0850	Welcome & Introduction		Conference Room 3 rd Floor, RCOG	Marielle Nobbenhuis, Nahid Gul
Session 1:	Teaching and Training		Facilitators: Marielle Nobbenhuis, Uzma Mohmood
08:50 - 09:10	General overview of the BIARGS organisation and working with RCOG		Nahid Gul	Consultant Pelvic Surgeon, BCU Health Board, Northwest
09:10 - 09:30	How to set up a robotic training centre? what are the requirements?		Nick Elkington	Consultant Gynaecologist Frimley Park Hospital, Surrey
09:30 - 09:50	Advantages of fellowship programme in Gynaecology robotic surgery		Marielle Nobbenhuis	Consultant Gynaecologist, Royal Marsden Hospital, London
09:50 - 10:10	RCOG: BIARGS SIMT Gynaecology Robotic Curriculum : Guide to trainees and trainers		Alec Mcewan	Consultant Gynaecologist Queen's Medical Centre, Nottingham
10:10 - 10:30	Join the wall of UK Gynaecology Robotic Surgeons. BIARGS Surgeon accreditation and certification: outcome of BIARGS Gynaecology Robotic audit		Nahid Gul	Consultant Pelvic Surgeon, BCU Health Board, Northwest
10:30 - 10:40	Selected abstract presentation		TBC
10:40 - 10:50	Selected abstract presentation		TBC
10:50 - 10:55	Q&A
10:55 - 11:20	Tea & Coffee	Sponsors visit	Poster viewing
Session 2:	Sharing and learning		Facilitators: Raza Amer, Zeiad El-Gizawy
11:20 - 11:50	Diamond sponsors session		CMR Surgical
11:50 - 12:10	How to implement robotic programme in Scotland and lessons learned		Kevin Burton	Gynae oncologist, Glasgow Royal Infirmary, Glasgow
12:10 - 12:30	How to implement robotic programme in England and lessons learned		Jeffrey Ahmed	Consultant Gynaecologist, Westminster London
12:30 - 12:50	How to implement robotic programme in Wales and lessons learned		Richard Peevor	Consultant Gynae oncologist, North Wales Health Board, Bangor
12:50 - 13:10	How to implement robotic programme in Ireland and lessons learned		Uzma Mohammad	Consultant Gynaecologist Limerick hospital, Ireland
13:10 - 13:15	Q & A
13:15 - 14:00	Lunch/ Sponsors visit	Poster viewing
Session 3:	Updates		Facilitators: Nahid Gul, Nick Elkington
14:00 - 14:30	In pursuit of Patient-Centered innovation: The role of professional organizations		Ranee Thakar	President RCOG Consultant Urogynaecologist, Croydon University Hospital, London

BIARGS

British & Irish Association of
Robotic Gynaecological Surgeons

BIARGS Educational Meeting
26TH June 2023
RCOG, 10-18 Union Street, London, SE1 1GH UK
Programme

14:30 – 14:50	Robotic assisted excision of thoracic and diaphragmatic endometriosis	Peter Barton-Smith	Consultant Gynaecological robotic surgeon, Princes Grace Hospital London
14:50 - 15:10	Robotic assistance in teaching “Excision of deep endometriotic nodules of sacral nerve” in 10 steps	Horace Roman	Professor in Endometriosis surgery. Bordeaux, France
15:10 – 15:20	Q&A Discussion
15:20 - 15:30	Tea/Coffee	Sponsors visit
Session 4: Issues which matter
		Facilitators: Manou Kaur and Sujata Gupta
15:30 - 15:45	Staff experience and how to achieve efficiency in robotic theatre	Dina El-Hamamsy	Gynaecology Specialist Registrar, Hertfordshire
15:45 - 16:00	Understanding the role of the scrub nurse during robotic surgery	Marie Taniacao	Theatre Nurse, Royal Marsden Hospital, London
16:00 - 16:15	How to train and implement robotic surgery in independent sector and overcome challenges of coding	Denis Tsepov	Consultant Gynaecological Surgeon, HCA London
16:15- 16:20	Q &A
Session 5: Opinions
		Facilitators: Nahid Gul, Marielle Nobbenhuis
16:20 – 17:00	Debate: Gynaecology Robotic surgery should be taught at consultant level	For: Zeiad El-Gizawy Consultant Gynaecologist UHNM, SOT	Against Tom Cioa Specialist Registrar Gynaecology UHNM, SOT
17:00 - 17:10	Selected abstract presentation
17:10 – 17:20	Selected abstract presentation
17:20 - 17:30	Selected abstract presentation
17:30 – 17:45	Q&A Discussion
17:45 – 18:00	Meeting Closing remarks	Marielle Nobbenhuis & Nahid Gul	